

Christina Bisanz
CEO, Ontario Long Term Care Association

Recently appointed as the CEO of the Ontario Long Term Care Association, Christina Bisanz leads a membership of 430 not-for-profit, charitable, private and municipal homes that represents nearly 50,000 residents. Her goal is to continue to enhance the vital role that the long term care sector plays in meeting the care and accommodation needs of aging Ontarians and contributing to an effective and sustainable health care system.

Christina has over 25 years of experience and leadership within the association and consultancy fields working with both private sector and non-profit organizations. She is especially well known in the advocacy and health sectors across Canada, having served most recently as Vice President, Stakeholder Relations for PCA Services/PharmaTrust, an innovative Ontario-based pharmacy technology company, and as Executive Director of the Consumers Council of Canada, and the Ontario Association of Police Services Boards.

Prior to this, Christina served as President and CEO of the Canadian Association of Chain Drug Stores, President and CEO of the Canadian Association for Pharmacy Distribution Management, and Vice President, Customer Policy of the Food and Consumer Products Manufacturers of Canada.

Over her career Christina has demonstrated her capacity to lead and achieve success on complex projects and to establish a strong working rapport with all levels of government, stakeholders and organizations. She is active in her community, and serves as a volunteer on a number of boards and committees, including Community Home Assistance to Seniors (CHATS) in York Region, Canada's Sports Hall of Fame, and the Canadian Foundation for Pharmacy, to name a few.
